Research Interests

Naturalistic neuroimaging; auditory neuroscience; music cognition; affective voice perception; computational modelling; open and reproducible science.

Selected Publications

Kim, S.-G. (2026). Stimulus-driven leakage in naturalistic neuroimaging. Imaging Neuroscience.

Kim, S.-G., et al. (2026). Temporal structure perception in tonal and atonal music quilts. Annals of the New York Academy of Sciences.

Kim, S.-G., et al. (2025). Computational modelling of music-evoked emotions. Manuscript in preparation.

Grants and Fellowships

- 2025–2027 DFG/NRF Bilateral Scientific Network
Affective voice perception and synthesis
Germany–South Korea
- 2024 Johanna Quandt Young Academy Fellowship
Goethe University Frankfurt
Frankfurt am Main, Germany

Teaching

- 2022–2024 Methods in Empirical Musicology
Hochschule für Musik Karlsruhe
Karlsruhe, Germany
- 2024–2025 Music and Brain
Goethe University Frankfurt
Frankfurt am Main, Germany

Invited Talks

- 2021 Naturalistic modelling of speech and music in the human brain
University College London
London, UK
- 2021 Neural encoding of naturalistic auditory signals
International Laboratory for Brain, Music and Sound Research
Montreal, Canada

Service

- 2026 External Postdoc Representative Election Committee
Max Planck Institute for Empirical Aesthetics
Frankfurt am Main, Germany
- 2026 Organiser, Interdisciplinary Workshop on Affective Voice Perception
DFG/NRF bilateral collaboration
Frankfurt am Main, Germany
